

Ready to Play
Music & Lyrics by Mike Bass

Everyday, a new day awaits,
I'm ready to play.
I have my bike now, no need to delay now.
I want to have fun now. I like it that way.

Everyone I meet through the day
says "Hello" as they wave.
The sun feels better as we walk together.
I say, "The day will be clever if you come my way."

I don't like to drive, but I do feel alive
when I'm taking the road less traveled.
As if I were skiing down a big mountain top,
My stride is smooth upon the gravel.

Everyday, I play the guitar.
And like a rock star,
I hope my music is soothing, yeah, that it's really moving.
I hope it gets people grooving when they're going by car.

I don't know about you, but what makes me feel new is when I find someone with whom I'm at ease,
Do you like to speak?
Be it in English, Spanish, or Japanese?

Maybe we could go traveling, maybe we could be dabbling,
yes, unraveling the secrets of other languages while we're walking.
Yeah...

Everyday, a new day awaits,
I'm ready to play.
